HOW DO I FIND A BOOK?

Technical books are found by using NASA Galaxie, NASA's online public access catalog which contains holdings for Glenn as well as the 9 other NASA Centers.

Use this url <http://nasagalaxie.larc.nasa.gov/index.html> to reach the NASA Galaxie home page. Select Glenn from the menu on the left.

The book collection contains scientific and technical books primarily in the fields of aeronautics, space, materials science, physics, engineering, mathematics, computer science, and telecommunications. There are also selections in administration, business, management, and personnel. NASA Galaxie is the NASA-wide library information management system. This system contains bibliographic information for all the NASA libraries holdings, including books, journals, technical reports, and electronic media, such as CD-ROMs, video tapes, and DVDs. A growing number of the bibliographic records contain hyperlinks to full text electronic reports and R&D.

You can do a quick subject search of NASA Galaxie from the left side of our Library home page using the “Search NASA Galaxie” box.
